THE AWFULLY SUDDEN DEATH of Harry Aldridge will come as a shock to many. Last Saturday night he was singing in his well-known manner at the Hotel Metropole, but on Sunday he was taken sick and died on Monday morning. There was hardly a concert or charitable entertainment that Harry was not to the fore as he was always ready to give his services when asked. Mr. Varelman, of the Great Western Hotel saw to the last arrangements and is collecting subscriptions for a fitting memorial to mark the spot where lies a "little white man."

CHINESE BOYS AND THEIR SICK MOTHERS.

PREVENTATIVE MEASURES AT CANTON.

"What shall we do with our boys?" is an old time query, but one capable of many interpretations. In China, however, more especially perhaps in Hongkong, it is peculiarly appropriate for here "our boys" are at times almost unmanageable, and Europeans have the utmost difficulty in keeping them anything like under proper restraint. But there are boys and boys, and to the uninitiated they are not a bad lot if well "cushawed." But the general boy—the sullen and morose character—finding employ in the service of some thoughtful and considerate European, is an object who, for cool contempt, callous selfishness, and crafty cunning it would be difficult to beat. For years past he has had a sick mother at Canton, and wishing to visit her obtains a few days leave to say nothing of an advance. He then sets off for his native city there to find employ and smile at having done the "follen devils." But their little games are not going on without interruption for it is satisfactory to find that measures are being taken whereby sick mothers and advanced wages are likely to be considerably handicapped if not altogether to become an enjoyment of the past. Moreover, the Chinese authorities are lending a helping hand and Mr. Boy seems likely to have a bad ten minutes if caught at his pranks again.

Not long ago a boy in the employ of Mr. N. K. Davidson, of the Waverley Hotel, at the end of a month said his mother was sick and dying and asked for several days leave in addition to an advance of $10. Mr. Davidson paid him his wages and gave him the advance. The boy found a substitute, and after the expiration of a fortnight, as No. 1 had not returned, Mr. Davidson got his other boy to make enquiries and get the return of the $10 advanced. After communications had been made with the police at Canton the boy was discovered in the service of the German Vice-Consulate. The advance was stopped out of the boy's wages, and returned to Mr. Davidson. A Mr. Lindberg, meanwhile brought the matter under the notice of one of the Chinese magistrates, and No. 1 received 50 strokes with the rattan.

It is to be hoped that this will be not only a warning to the boys, but that Europeans will have satisfaction in knowing that their coolies cannot treat them with impunity and rush away with an advance for the purpose of taking them to the bedside of their sick mothers and possibly to more genial employ.

THE CRICKET WEEK.

SHANGHAI versus STRAITS.

FIRST DAY'S PLAY.

Shanghai, 1st Innings..... 227
Straits 1st Innings (for 6 wickets).... 62

The second day of the Shanghai v. Straits match opened with beautiful weather. The pitch had worn well considering the rain that had fallen since the opening day of the week, but it was inclined to get tricky. The two not-out men, Barkshire and Whitley, came out for the Straits to face the bowling of Potter and Mann for Shanghai. Barkshire took the first over from Potter and drove him to leg for four. Mann went on at the top end and with his first ball scattered Whitley's stumps. Score 66-7-4. Macartagart was next in, but was bad joss for Barkshire—Potter sent down a swift Yorker that took Barkshire's middle. Score 68-8-6. Matters were looking very smothered for the Straits—two wickets down for six runs in the first ten minutes play. Both Mann and Potter were hardly ever off the wicket, and the ball was beating the bat all the time. The fielding was as good as ever—Turnbull at point standing out conspicuously. Macartagart was settling down, but Potter was getting past him although he got a nice one away to leg for one. 70 up for 8 wickets. Hi yah. Wright was hitting in better style than we have seen him, and drove Mann to the on side twice the second hit resulting in four. Potter's first in his next over was a swift straight, and Macartagart, playing forward, weakly lobbed it into the bowler's hands—Score 75-9-1. Dr. Dane followed in with a pair of black eyes the result of yesterday's accident, and played a good straight bat to Potter's fastest, but was late for one that fortunately for him went over the wicket. Wright then made the hit of the match in driving Mann clean over the railings for 6, the next for four, and then cutting him for one. 90.

Matters were improving a little, but Dane's life at the wicket was only a small question of time. Wright was in difficulties with Potter who was on the stumps. His balls, however, were rising too much, and for an over, with the exception of the last ball which was driven for one, beat Wright. Mann's first was hit to leg for two and his third scored as a wide. Dane drove Potter along the grass for one, certainly the best stroke he had yet made, and Wright got well hold of his fourth ball and hit him to the boundary. Dane played out a maiden from Mann and managed to keep his wicket up. Potter was slinging them in and when Wieppert, at wicket, missed McEwan took them after coming in from the slips. Wright drove Potter twice for four, and in attempting the same stroke was bowled. Score 105-10-21. Wright's 28 was, with the exception of Voules, the best showing of the team. The total, 105, left the Straits 122 to the bad.

The attendance during the play was very sparse. Farmer's grand marshes being almost deserted as also was the bar underneath, and a neglected bar in Hongkong is a most unusual sight.

At 11.5 a.m. the Shanghai team appeared in the field again, as the Straits, being 122 behind, had to follow on with Voules and Carter. Carter took the first from Potter and cut his second neatly in the slips. Voules was nearly beat by his third, he only just dropping on it in time.

Mann continued with the ball from the top end and Carter cut him for one that was fielded ably by Price. The Straits luck was clean out for Carter snickered Potter's first to Wieppert, who was standing well back, and he held it. Score 2-1-2. Sharpe, the sheet anchor of the side, followed and played out the over Voules was playing Mann in good style, who frequently was too much to the off to be dangerous. The fielding was smart at all points, and Potter with his first ball clean bowled Voules. Score 3-2-1. Voules did not appear to bat as we have seen him, but we think it was due to the excellence of the bowling than to the want of form of the batsman. Three runs only had been scored in 15 minutes play, and it seemed that at all points the Straits were out-classed by Shanghai. The cricket during the morning was of the slowest description and only relieved by the succession of batsmen coming and going. Green got hold of a well-placed one from Mann and scored three. A three from a good hit came as a welcome change. Potter sent down a maiden to Green, and Mann went on to Sharpe who was palpably beaten by his first two balls but drove his fifth to the off for one. The wicket was not playing truly and considerably helped the bowlers. The fielding was excellent. Rose, at mid off, effectually stopped several times. Ten went up on the board after 30 minutes play for the loss of two wickets. Green and Sharpe were getting their eyes in when the former skied one of Potter's to Wieppert. It was a most unfortunate occurrence, for Green was doing well and the ball rose off either his glove or wrist. Score 13-3-8. Potter was almost unplayable his balls were bumping and shooting, and his average for the time being was 6 overs, 4 maidens, and 3 wickets for one run. Truly a marvellous performance. Wright followed in and Stanion took the ball from Mann and was driven to the on side for one. He then made a splendid drive off Potter's first ball landing it over the screen into the road for six, and afterwards stole a single from a hit to leg. Wright next got Stanion to the boundary for four, but nearly lifted the next into V. H. Lanning's hands, and then drove Potter to the off for another four bringing 30. He again tried to drive Potter but only succeeded in putting the ball into the bowler's hands—Score 33-4-17. Fifty minutes play for thirty-three runs shows what the bowling and fielding was like. Mackenzie was next to partner Sharpe and took his first ball from Potter and drove the second neatly for one.

Potter's third was sent to the railings by Sharpe and his fourth cut to point by the same batsman. Mackenzie drove Stanion to leg for two and 40 went up on the telegraph. He was showing better form than he had before, as without doubt he has been the disappointment of the team. He drove to the screen for four making seven in two overs. Sharpe could not get any of Potter's next away and a maiden was the result. Mackenzie, after two tries, drove Stanion to the boundary with a very neat on grass cutter, and Sharpe did the same to Potter bringing 50. to view. Play was getting a little livelier as the last ten minutes had produced as many runs as the first half hour. A grand drive along the ground by Mackenzie off Potter brought 60 up. Stanion's second was cut by Sharpe to the Pavilion, and his fourth to the on for one. That bowler was doing his hardest, but the batsmen were playing him with ease. Potter, who had been bowling for two hours, made way for McEwan. It was a very wise change as the batsmen were set and Potter was evidently tiring. Mackenzie was ill at ease in his first over, tapping up his third ball and missing his fourth and fifth that were taken by Wieppert at the wicket. But Mackenzie was in his ground. Sharpe brought forth a round of applause by driving Stanion to the pavilion, and 70 appeared. McEwan was breaking from the leg and troubling Mackenzie who, however, commenced to get him out of his wicket either with his bat or his legs. Mann took the ball from Stanion at the City end, and Sharpe drove him hard to the off, but the boundary was well saved by Lanning. Mackenzie next finished to the railings for four and McEwan sent a full pitcher to Sharpe, who drove to the boundary bringing 80 up. Sharpe's score stood at 31 after being at the wickets forty minutes, and his stand at this juncture of the game could not be over-rated. Mackenzie was opening out his shoulders, and drove Mann for five in two successive balls. He could not play McEwan who was varying his pace and getting big work on the ball. Sharpe got Mann away to the stand in grand style, and with a straight drive, put him clean out of the ground for six. Mann was not bowling as he did yesterday, and Sharpe was taking a decided fancy to him. Mackenzie stepped out to McEwan and drove him for one, and Sharpe placed has third for the same amount. Mackenzie's leg—that he sprained yesterday seemed at times to hamper his movement, but he was playing a bold aggressive innings. V. H. Lanning took the leather from Mann at the top end and one only was scored off his first over. An appeal for leg before off McEwan was not allowed, and Sharpe replied by driving his fourth to the screen—100 up after one hour and 40 minutes play.

The bell then rang for tiffin.

On resuming after tiffin Sharpe and Mackenzie, the two not out men, were greeted with applause from the few onlookers. Mann started with the ball from the top end, Sharpe taking his first and driving his third to the boundary. He was batting with confidence as if such a thing as tiffin time had never occurred. Potter went on at the lower end to Mackenzie, who started with a good free bat, and drove him to the pavilion putting 110 up. Mann was bowling well to the off, and Sharpe cut him hard to Price, who snicked in No. 1 form. The next, however, was saved to the boundary. The bowling was on all sides of the coveted three stumps, and Mackenzie put another through the railings off Potter. Mann's condition would evidently not stand a prolonged spell with the ball, and if he and Potter went off colour, Sharpe and Mackenzie looked quite capable of sticking for the afternoon. Sharpe took a maiden from Mann narrowly escaping being caught by Rose at mid off. It could hardly be called a mistake, but yet it was a possible chance that Rose was unfortunate in not holding. He was nevertheless equally to be praised in stopping a ball that would have gone to the railings. Sharpe, playing like a veteran, drove Mann for four, the next from the same bowler scoring as a wide, and Sharpe getting the fourth to square leg for one. Mackenzie was on to him too, as he drove and notched four. An expensive over. Potter followed with a maiden that made Sharpe's hair rise, and Mann went on to be driven for four by Mackenzie who, however, in trying to repeat the dose skied one into V. H. Lanning's hands on the off side. Score 135-5-42. Mackenzie had retrieved his reputation and in the face of the best bowling, and the finest fielding yet seen, in the partnership with Sharpe, carried the score from 33 to 135 for the fifth wicket. Whitley was next and glanced away Potter for three. The force of bad example, however, was present and he placed one up in the air to Lanning in ideally the same way that Mackenzie had done, and Lanning held it in identically the same fashion—Score 139-6-4. Barkshire, who performed so efficiently last innings, followed to join Sharpe busily engaged punishing Mann's off the wicket ones. Barkshire took his first ball from Potter, and took his quietus with the next as Potter clean bowled him. The ball was a fast one and rising, just took his balls off. Score 141-70. Billings appeared and Potter sent three down to no purpose. Mann was getting true, but a full pitched one to leg was sent to the stand by Sharpe. Potter was going off and so were the balls he was volleying to Billings, who was taking advantage of his tremendous reach and putting them quietly away. The excellent fielding would not allow of runs. Mann released another maiden to Sharpe, who seemed to have taken a mortgage on the wicket. Billings drove Potter for one, putting up 150.

COTTAM & CO., PYJAMAS FOR AUTUMN WEAR.

By this time the game had touched on another quiet spot and was flat, stale, unprofitable. Billings had not got set, and was contenting himself with playing the balls out of his wicket, while the wearing of the pitch seemed to be wearing Sharpe, who was looking after his vested interest. Billings was getting tired of lame play and landed Potter to the railings for four. 150 had been up for fifteen minutes but the attendance, which had materially increased since the morning, was principally listening to the band, Sharpe, with a pretty drive off Mann, brought 160 up, and Billings hit Potter to the screen. McEwen took Mann's place to try and divide. Sharpe and Billings, and the first named drove his third ball to the off for four and then to the on for one. But Sharpe's days and moments were quickly flying for Potter, with his second ball (a daisy), bowled him after he had been in 2 hours and a half compiling 16. Score 168-8-76. Sharpe had been in since 33 was on the board, and played the game all through, hitting all round the wicket, flogging the loose ones, and saving his side from an ignominious failure. Macgregor was next, and ushered in the beginning of the end, but he got McEwen away for four for a start, put Potter to the screen for the usual, and then nicely guarded against one of his hottest. Potter was still kept on, and while he continued good bowling, warranted it. For an over he would occasionally get off the wicket, and for the next would perhaps send down some real clinkers. McEwen started his next with a medium paced one from which Macgregor was very nearly bowled and stumped. He got his fourth to leg for one, and the ball beat Billings in the last of McEwen's over. Stanion commenced in place of Potter, but seemed to be played with ease. McEwen was hit to the railings by Billings, and one from Macgregor's bat put 190 up. Macgregor was hitting freely and suffered accordingly, as he drove Stanion to Price, at long off, and he held it. Dane was next in, and was welcomed by Billings cutting Stanion for eight in two successive balls. 200 up. Mann next went on at his old end in place of McEwen, and Dane put him to leg.

Dane strikes ones as having a thorough knowledge of the game, but is out of practice. Billings was slashing freely at Mann, nothing seeming to come amiss. 210 up, Dane drove Stanion's third along the grass in a very finished manner for four, and he again faced Mann and got him to leg for two. Stanion appeared to be sending down good straight balls that were on the wicket, but Billings seemed to find no difficulty in playing them. Dane was batting carefully and looked dangerous if he once got set. McEwen went on in place of Mann, and was twice driven to leg and the off six being notched, 220 up. Dane made two by one of the prettiest cuts of the innings off Stanion, Billings, and then Dane, put him to leg for one each, and the former also to square leg for four. Nine scored off Stanion's last, and the men fast getting set. But the end was at hand as Dane put McEwen feebly up in the air and was taken by Turnbull. Total for the side, 230, leaving Shanghai 108 to tie.

At 3.50 the Straits took the field, and A. E. Lanning and McEwen came out for Shanghai to bat to the bowling of Billings, who started from the lower end, and McEwen took the first ball. Mackenzie, in spite of a strained tendon, commenced from the City end bowling his first to Lanning, who drove his second to the stand for four. Green, in the slips, took two hard cuts from Lanning and was applauded, from all round the ground. McEwen cut Billings for four and again for one. Mackenzie was bowling medium paces and getting a good break on from the off. Billings was making them jump, and his next over was a maiden. For a time nothing of moment occurred as Mackenzie and Billings were dead on the stumps, and it had taken fifteen minutes to put up 10.

Mackenzie's next was a maiden, as when he kept to medium speed breaks he was dangerous. Wright was saving runs in the slips and, in fact, it was the best exhibition of fielding that had yet been seen from the Straits. The cricket was decidedly slow it seeming the batsmen's object to play out time and start good and fresh tomorrow morning. Lanning glanced to leg a fast one from Mackenzie, and Dane well saved a boundary. Fifteen runs had taken thirty-five minutes to make. Mackenzie's first went to the screen for four from a fluky hit by McEwen, and a hard cut by the same batsman put 20 up after 40 minutes play.

Lanning was having hard luck as he was hit four times on the inside of the thigh. Sharpe took the ball from Mackenzie at the top end and bowled a maiden to McEwen. Lanning made three to leg off Billings the only score of the over, and one only was made off Sharpe's next five. The game still continued of the tamest description, Sharpe and Billings both being on the spot and the pitch playing very bumpy. Stumps were drawn leaving Lanning at 12 and McEwen, 13. Out of twenty-two overs thirteen were maidens.

The Shanghai v Straits Match is expected to finish before tiffin to-morrow, and if so the Hongkong v Shanghai game will commence at 1.30. This much-talked-of contest should produce some good cricket, and on the showing of the last four days Hongkong should win after a hard fight.

TENNIS.

It was decided this morning to play off the doubles only as Hancock, having to play cricket to-morrow, did not see the force of playing ten sets. A good many spectators turned up at the Wigwam, including H.E. the Governor and a number of ladies.

Shanghai opened. Ramsay serving, lost the first stroke but quickly brought matters to 40-15, when Grist placed the ball well outside giving Shanghai the first game.

Hancock opened the service for Hongkong and after some spirited play on both sides deuce was reached, and after coming up four times, resulted in a win for Shanghai. Hancock's service opened badly, 15-40 being reached, and the game secured by Hongkong on the next stroke.

Grist lost his first two services but equalized on the two following, and then took the lead 40-30. Deuce followed, however, and after coming up twice was decided for Hongkong, making two all.

Shanghai then, on Ramsay's service, carried off a love game.

Hancock's service opened strong and a love again equalized matters.

Shanghai then opened with thirty-love, Hongkong scored four points in succession and again took the lead, 4-3.

Grist secured his first two points, lost the next and then carried off the game—5-3.

Shanghai then woke up and 40-15 and game resulted from some quick play—4-5.

Hancock then took matters in hand and quickly carried off the next game, Shanghai only gaining one point—6-4. 1 set to Hongkong.

2ND SET.

Shanghai gained the first point but the change over, but Hongkong then put up 15-40, when Shanghai gained a point only to be defeated—0-1.

Grist quickly put up 40-0, Shanghai gained one point and lost the second game—2-0.

A love game in Shanghai's favour from Ramsay's service put the score—1-2 Hancock retaliated however and with a deadly service quickly put up a love game—3-1.

Love-thirty followed on Shanghai service, deuce was reached and after coming up twice resulted in a win for Shanghai—2-3.

Grist's next service resulted in a love game, Hancock making some pretty play at the net.

Shanghai followed suit with a love game 3-4.

Hancock gained his first stroke, but equalized matters by a couple of faults, carrying off the game however without Shanghai gaining another point—5-3.

The concluding game of the set ran love-forty when Shanghai gained a point, only to be beaten on the next however—6-3.

3RD SET.

Grist opened with a fine service but was baffled by Shanghai after some ding-dong play. He equalized on his next however, but Shanghai ran up to forty and gained the game. 0-1.

Play was more even in the second game, thirty all and deuce coming up, and after two returns to that unholy score Shanghai gained the point. 2-0.

The third game, though hard fought fell to Shanghai. 0-3.

Shanghai continued to improve and added another well fought game to their score, 4-0.

A love game to Shanghai followed from Grist's service. 0-5.

The next game was gained by the visitors after a hard tussle and some capital rallies, thus giving them a love set.

Shanghai then played up well bringing up forty-five, only to be followed by deuce twice in succession which resulted in a score of three all.

Grist's fine service then bothered Shanghai and a love game put up. 4-3.

Ramsay retaliated with another love game thus equalizing matters. 4-4.

The ninth game, from Hancock's service quickly ran to 40-15 but the inevitable deuce cropped up and despite some fine play on Ramsay's part the game fell to Hongkong. 5-4.

Shanghai next put up 40-15 and then made matters equal once more. 5-5.

Grist's service brought up fifteen all, thirty-five, forty-five, forty-three and game. 6-5.

Shanghai took the first point from Ramsay's service then fifteen all and thirty-five, forty-five, forty-three and game followed. 6-6.

Hancock gained his first point lost his second and some very pretty play resulted in fifteen-thirty, fifteen-thirty all forty-three and game. 7-7.

The next game fell to Hongkong after a hard tussle. 8-7.

Fifteen all thirty-five, forty-five, forty-eight and game equalized matters bringing up eight all.

Grist, after a good service, lost the first point for Hongkong, and drove the second out after some smart returns. The third fell to Hongkong and thirty all came up next followed by forty-three and game. 10-9.

Thirty-love and thirty all followed on Shanghai's service and deuce dropped up once more, resulting on the third attempt in a game to Shanghai.

The next game was a ding-dong affair and put Shanghai one ahead.

Fifteen all came from Ramsay's service and then Shanghai ran ahead and won the game and set. 13-11.

Two sets all.

5TH SET.

Hancock took the service for Hongkong and deuce was arrived, the game falling to Shanghai on the first attempt. 0-1.

Fifteen all, thirty fifteen thirty all and deuce followed the game going to Shanghai. 2 all.

From Hancock's service Hongkong gained but a point. 2-3.

A love game to Hongkong off Ramsay's service then brought up. 3 all.

CRICKET FESTIVITIES.

LADY GASCOIGNE'S "AT HOME."

Chinese lanterns and fairy lamps glistened in the foliage surrounding Headquarter House, last evening when Lady Gascoigne held an "At Home." The beautiful grounds were most effectively and tastefully illuminated, and the function was thoroughly enjoyed by members of the cricketing teams, and representatives of military, naval and civil life. The guests, who were received on the terrace by Lady Gascoigne and Major-General Sir William Gascoigne, were favoured during the evening by selections of music given by the bands of the Royal Welch Fusiliers and the 2nd Rajputs. Supper was served in the dining hall and the billiard room, after which the pleasant function proceeded until close upon midnight.

THE A. D. C. PERFORMANCE.

We have been handed a very neat and effective programme of the Hongkong Amateur Dramatic Club performance to be given this evening in honour of the Shanghai and Straits Cricket teams. The first portion of the entertainment will be occupied by a performance of "Try-ing it on," and those announced to take part are Messrs O. H. P. Hay, C. Hudson, L.M.S., and G. H. Ardron. Mr. H. W. Bird is the honorary secretary, Messrs G. Grimble and Moll, R.W.F., look after the musical portion of the entertainment, and Mr. Gumpert is the stage manager. The plantation reveals should be exceptionally jolly, as the pieces selected are both pretty and popular. Many well-known vocalists are assisting, and a very strong chorus will take part. In addition, by kind permission of Lieut-Col. Hon. R. H. Bertie and the "Officers," the band of the 2nd Royal Welch Fusiliers will perform during the evening.

SANITARY BOARD.

A meeting of the Sanitary Board was held last Thursday afternoon in the Board Room. The President (Dr. Atkinson, Principal Civil Medical Officer) occupied the chair, and there were also present—Hon. A. W. Brewin, Registrar-General (Vice-President), Hon. W. Chatham (Director of Public Works), Dr. Clark (Medical Officer of Health), Lieut. Col. Hughes, D.S.O., R.A.M.C., M.F.F. J. Badesley (Acting Captain Superintendent of Police), Mr. Lau Chu Pak, and Mr. G. A. Woodcock (Secretary).

SANITARY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

The report of the Sanitary Surveyor for the third quarter of 1901 was laid on the table. The report stated that plans had been deposited during the quarter for the drainage of 224 houses. Plans for 89 houses were carried forward from 1900, and 589 from last quarter, making a total of 1,402 in hand during the quarter. The drainage of 160 houses was completed, leaving 1,242 to carry forward. Re-drainage or repairs to drains were carried out in 44 instances, 206 houses being carried forward. This made a total of 250 houses in hand for re-drainage or repairs during the quarter. Certificates were granted to 173 houses that they had been built in accordance with the provisions of Section 84 of Ordinance 13 of 1901. It was found necessary to open up the drains of 8 buildings, 2 of which required reconstruction and 6 amending. Notices were served on the owners of the 8 buildings, requiring them to execute the necessary work. In addition to the foregoing, 3,957 houses had been inspected, with the result that 353 drainage nuisances were discovered. A notice was in each case served on the owner or occupier to abate the nuisance. In all, 160 nuisances were reported to the Medical Officer of Health and 81 to the Director of Public Works, to be dealt with by them. The drainage-inspector had cleaned 246 choked drain-traps on private property. Tables were attached showing (a) the drainage work done during the quarter, (b) the number of repairs or additions executed during the quarter, and (c) the total work done since the Public Health Ordinance came into force.

FOOCHOW NOTES.

FOOCHOW, November 9th.

The terribly sudden death of the much beloved wife of Mr. Charles Skerrett Rogers which took place last night, has cast an intense gloom over Foochow. It was but a few days ago that Mrs. Rogers was enjoying her usual open-air pastimes of tennis and riding, and paying visits, apparently in the best of health, and this morning we hear of her having passed away. The deceased lady was the young mother of two children, for whom and for their bereaved father the profoundest sympathy is felt.

There was only a very small attendance on the Course to watch the training this morning and the spirits of those who were present were visibly damped by the sad news which had reached the stand soon after daybreak. Mr. Bridge's stable was out first, Saint-de-tout accompanied by Sirius doing his mile in 2.21. Chicane covering the same distance in 2.26. Marquis and Malaga both galloped 4 mile separately in 1.46; and Mr. Min's griffin 4 mile in 1.40. Captain Hope's pair of griffins went 4 mile in 3.45, the dun, with his long stride, proving the better pony. Mr. Kitchin's pair did their mile in 2.34. Mr. Brittain's griffin galloped 1 mile separately and alone, Pegasus accomplishing it in 3.14 and the other in 3.18. Mr. Dorset's griffin Sobran went 4 mile in 3.03, Knightly having shipped in for the last 4 mile. The harvest of the second crop of rice commenced last week and the reports of the yield are fully as unsatisfactory as anticipated owing to the long absence of rain. It is estimated that the crop will aggregate little more than half of the normal production. For the same reason the sweet-potato crop is equally disappointing.

THE CHRYSANTHEMUM AND AUTUMN FLOWER SHOW.

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent on the Recreation Ground on Wednesday on the occasion of the above show; nearly all the residents were present, including numerous children who added to the gaiety of the scene. The arrangements were excellent. The exhibits were disposed on either side of a broad promenade of closely mown lawn, at the south end of which were two tents, one used for the exhibition of cut flowers and vegetables and the other for tea. The Viceroy's band was in attendance, H. E. having kindly sent it in from the city, and a suitable and pleasing selection of music was played at intervals during the afternoon.

Considering that it is nine years since a Chrysanthemum Show was held in the port, the exhibits on Wednesday were remarkably good. There is a good deal of difference between cultivating these flowers for our own pleasure and gratification and paying that extra attention to them year after year which is naturally done when perfection is aimed at with a view to competing with you neighbours at a public show. And then apart from the flower-lover's interest, think of the native gardener's extra exertions when there is to be a show—a Chinaman loves competition. Taking all into account, the exhibition of Wednesday must be pronounced as having been surprisingly good, and we may be sure that if it is understood that the showing is to be of annual recurrence we shall very soon reach the standard of excellence attained here in the eighties. The same remarks apply to other plants. The pots of Amaranthus, Coleus, Croton, Dahlia, and other flowering plants exhibited on Wednesday were all fairly good in their way, but how much better they will be in the future if annual shows may be looked forward to. The cut flowers attracted a good deal of attention, as did, also, the early vegetables.—Eden.

GERMANY AND THE UNITED STATES.

When Mr. Roosevelt became Acting President of the United States he wrote a letter to one of his most intimate friends, Professor Münsterberg, of Harvard University, saying that there were few things he had more at heart than the cultivation of good relations between the United States and Germany. The Professor has just written an interesting article on Mr. Roosevelt. As to the new President, it is, he writes, quite a mistake to regard him as belonging to the type of American Jingo. Nothing is more distasteful to him than hollow Jingoism backed up by empty phrases rather than by deeds. "If, under the new President," writes the Professor, "any change is brought about in the friendly relations between America and Europe, it will be a rapprochement with Germany. Not, however, so much because relations with Germany will change, but because those with England will."

PRIDE OF BIRTH.

WHO IS A BRITISH SUBJECT?

It is natural that we, these little islands, should jealously guard the social advantages, the protection and field for advancement which are enjoyed by those who can claim to be British subjects. But in the eyes of the law there is considerable confusion as to the necessary qualifications which outsiders must show before they can be admitted to all the privileges of citizenship. On this account the Home Secretary appointed an inter-departmental committee eighteen months ago to report "upon the doubts and difficulties which have arisen in connection with the interpretation and administration of the Acts relating to naturalisation, and to advise whether legislation for the amending of those Acts is desirable, and if so, what scope and direction such legislation should take." Who is a British subject? The committee point out that:

To the common law belongs the fundamental principle that any person who is born within His Majesty's dominions is from the moment of his birth a British subject, whatever may be the nationality of either or both of his parents, and however temporary and casual the circumstances determining the locality of his birth may have been.

The child of an alien enemy born in a part of His Majesty's dominions which is at the time in hostile occupation is not a British subject. Again, the child born within the British dominions of an ambassador or other diplomatic agent accredited to the Crown by a foreign sovereign is not a British subject. The limits of this latter exception have not been exactly ascertained.

The King's son is always a British subject, wherever he may be born. With this exception the acquisition of the status of a British subject by parentage rests on statute law. A person whose father or paternal grandfather was born within His Majesty's dominions is deemed a natural-born British subject, although he himself was born abroad.

To the category of persons who are British subjects by reason of their birth having taken place within His Majesty's dominions must be added those who are born on board a British ship. Some doubt exists as to the extent of this rule. There seems to be no doubt, the committee remark, that a person is a natural-born British subject who is:

(a) Born on board a British ship of war, wherever such ship may be;

(b) Born on board a British merchant vessel on the high seas.

It is suggested that a simple rule should be made that any child born on a foreign ship while in British waters should not be deemed to be a subject of this country, owing to this accident of birth but, on the other hand, an infant who first looks out on life under the white or red ensign, wherever it may fly afloat, is apparently a subject of the King, though he be as black as ebony or his father be this country's most deadly enemy.

The report recognises that there are and should be limits to the admission into the enjoyment of the privileges of British subjects in certain exceptions. The committee think that it should be clear that persons under disability, i.e., minors, married women, idiots and lunatics should not be capable of receiving certificates of naturalisation.

In conclusion, the committee recommend the repeal of a number of old enactments dating back to the time of Edward III., and they suggest that:

The existing law as to acquisition of British nationality by parentage should be enacted in a simpler form, with this exception, that, where the father was born out of His Majesty's dominions a child also born out of such dominions should not be a British subject.

Provision should be made by legislation enabling a Secretary of State, or the Governor of a British possession, to confer the status of a British subject upon persons who fulfil the requisite conditions in any part of the British dominions, and that the status so conferred should be recognised by British law everywhere, both within and without His Majesty's dominions.

The conditions necessary for the acquisition and loss of the status of a British subject should remain as at present, with certain modifications as to residence, revocability of certificate, and otherwise.

The law as to the acquisition and loss of the status of a British subject by persons under disability should be simplified and modified in the manner stated in detail in the report.—D. T.

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY.

THERAPION.

This successful and highly popular remedy, as employed in the Continental Hospitals by Ricord, Rostan, Jobert, Velpau, and others, combines all the desiderata to be sought in a medicine of the kind, and surpasses everything hitherto employed.

THERAPION No. 1, in a few days only, removes all discharges from the urinary organs, effectually superseding injections, the use of which does irreparable harm by laying the foundation of stricture and other serious diseases. In dysentery, piles, irritation of the lower bowel, cough, bronchitis, asthma, and some of the more trying complaints of this kind, it will be found astonishingly efficacious, affording prompt relief where other well-tried remedies have been powerless.

THERAPION No. 2, for impurity of the blood, scurvy, pimples, spots, blotches, pains and swellings of the joints, secondary symptoms, disease of the bones, sore throat, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla, &c., to the destruction of the sufferer's teeth and ruin of health. This preparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates every poisonous matter from the body.

THERAPION No. 3, for nervous exhaustion, waste of vitality, and all the distressing consequences arising from early error, excess, residence in hot, unhealthy climates, &c. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigour to the debilitated.

THERAPION may be procured of the principal Chemists and Merchants throughout the world. Price in England 2/6 and 4/6. In ordering, the purchaser should state which of the three numbers he requires, and observe that the word "THERAPION" appears on the Government Stamp (in white letters on a red ground) affixed to every genuine package by order of Her Majesty's Hon. Commissioners, and without which it is a forgery.
